Dear Mr Scott,

I am writing to draw to your attention to concerns raised over the use of the phrase 'Polish death camps' in a Lateline broadcast on 12 May 2009. I have had representations from various members of the Polish community who are distressed by this phraseology.

It has been pointed out that the use of this phrasing implies that Nazi death camps were perpetrated by the Polish people and nation. As you would appreciate, it is important that we are mindful of the sensitivities around this topic, given that hundreds of thousands of Poles, both Jewish and Gentile, died in these camps.

I note your correction on 12 June 2009. However, given the severity of issue I feel the matter needs to be reiterated.

Sincerely,
